2. The centre has the right to:
 - 2.1. Any systems which the centre has approved for the safety of learners and personnel and to apply certain regulations regarding those systems;
 - 2.2. Provide specialised advice about any serious behavioural and developmental problems of learners if the management feels it's needed. Parents/Guardians will be notified.
 - 2.3. Take a learner to the doctor or hospital or call in for help in the case of a medical emergency, if the parents cannot be reached in a reasonable time period;
 - 2.4. Send a permission slip to the parents/guardians if any emotional evaluation is required on a learner;
 - 2.5. Deny access of a sick learner, who according to the management shows a threat to either himself/herself or to other learners;
 - 2.6. Shall not release the learner into the custody of any other person unless the parent/guardian has given proper written notice in advance, accompanied by the person's Identity document which will be requested for presentation when the 3rd party fetches the learner;
 - 2.7. If a dispute between parents, divorced parents and/or any authorised party, regarding the abovementioned aspects arises, the learner shall only be returned into the care of the person that left the learner at Duendé Academy or as per Court Order. At all times Duendé Academy will not interfere with the status quo ante;

- 2.8. Provide a month's written notification to the parents/guardians in case of a problematic issue that the learner must leave the centre premises, unless the management decides that shorter notification is needed in specific circumstances;
 - 2.9. Cancel the admission of a learner if more than 50% of one month's centre fees are outstanding on the last calendar day of a month and parents/guardians will be held responsible for all debt collection and legal fees;
 - 2.10. Held parents/guardians responsible for any outstanding fees or payments to the centre as indicated in the Agreement and take any steps necessary for the collection of those fees or payments and has the right to blacklist the responsible person at the relevant Credit Bureau;
